JULY 5, 2026

A Note from Deacon Jay VanHoosier

THE GOD WHO NEVER STOPS SOWING

Have you ever noticed that in Jesus' Parable of the Sower, the sower doesn't seem to be very concerned about where the seed lands? Some falls on the path, some among rocks, some in thorns, and only some on rich soil. If we were trying to maximize the harvest, we would probably call this poor farming. Yet Jesus paints a very different picture of God.

This Sunday, I find myself less interested in the soil and more captivated by the Sower.

God's love is not cautious or calculated. He does not wait until our hearts are perfectly prepared before offering His grace. Instead, He generously scatters His Word into every life, trusting that even hearts that seem hardened today may one day become fertile ground. Isaiah beautifully reminds us that God's Word is like the rain that falls from heaven. It waters the earth and accomplishes the purpose for which God sends it. His grace is always reaching toward us.

That gives me great hope - not only for myself but for everyone I meet. We all know someone who has drifted away from the Church, someone carrying deep wounds, or someone who seems uninterested in matters of faith. It can be tempting to think that the seed has been wasted. But God never thinks that way.

He continues to sow because He never gives up on His children. Every invitation to prayer, every act of kindness, every word of encouragement, and every witness of Christian charity may be another seed that God is planting. We may never see when it takes root, but God does.

Perhaps that is also our calling. Rather than deciding who is "good soil," we are simply asked to imitate the Divine Sower. We are called to scatter seeds of faith, hope, and love generously, trusting God to provide the growth in His time.

The miracle of this Sunday's Gospel is not simply that some seed bears fruit. The miracle is that God never stops sowing - and because He never stops sowing, He never stops believing that every heart can one day become a place where His love flourishes.

Christ's Peace

Deacon Jay

FOOD COLLECTION CAMPAIGN

Each Sunday we will highlight one specific food or household item that is especially needed by the needy in our neighborhood. By focusing on one item each week, together we can help keep our Food Pantry and Blessing Boxes stocked with food and supplies for those who are struggling. This can also be a great way to get our families and kids involved in helping to do what Christ teaches us by loving our neighbor in need. This weekend we are collecting Pasta and Pasta Sauce Sunday. There are baskets at the church doors for the collection.

Here is a complete list of items that are especially helpful as you do your weekly or monthly shopping:

CANNED MEAT (TUNA, CHICKEN, HAM)

PASTA AND PASTA SAUCE

CANNED BEANS AND VEGETABLES

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY

We are inviting anyone interested in helping our parish provide a monthly hot meal to the clients of St Benedict's Women & Family Day Shelter located on the corner of 9th and Hickman Ave.

This shelter continues to provide wonderful services for clients such as:

- A place of rest during the day
- Along with targeted case management; laundry and shower facilities; education, employment, and housing assistance; bible study, and an array of other programs

In order to have a hot meal, the clients must walk approximately a mile to the Pitino Shelter, thus we believe by sharing the blessing of food with these women and children we are recognizing that each person is important and loved by God.
