THANK YOU!

A Note from Deacon Jay VanHoosier

THERE'S STILL A PLACE FOR YOU HERE

Over the past several months, our Precious Blood parish family has experienced a season of change and uncertainty. The upheaval surrounding Fr. Carl's departure affected people in different ways. For some, it may have brought hurt, frustration, disappointment, or simply a desire to step away for a while.

If that describes you or your family, I want you to know something very simple: you are missed.

We miss seeing you at Mass. We miss your presence at parish gatherings. We miss the gifts you bring to our ministries and our community. Your contributions of time, talent, and treasure matter—not simply because there are things that need to be done or bills that need to be paid, but because you are part of this parish family.

And while this has been a season of transition, Precious Blood has never stopped being Precious Blood.

Fr. John continues to faithfully serve us as our parish administrator, and in December we will joyfully welcome Fr. Jason as our new pastor. In the meantime, the sacramental life of our parish continues. The Eucharist is celebrated. Children are baptized. Sins are forgiven. Couples enter into marriage. Our young people are formed in the faith. The sick are visited. Families bury and pray for their loved ones. People in need are served.

In other words, the mission continues.

That mission doesn't belong to a particular pastor, deacon, staff member, or group of parishioners. It belongs to all of us because it comes from Jesus Christ. We are called together to worship Him, grow as His disciples, care for one another, and carry His love beyond the walls of our church.

So, if you've been away for a while, please consider this a personal invitation: come home.

Come pray with us. Come serve with us. Come help us continue building the parish community God is calling Precious Blood to be.

There's work ahead of us, but there's also tremendous reason for hope. And we would be better—and more complete—with you here.

Know that you and your family remain in my prayers, and I hope to see you soon.

Christ's Peace,
Deacon Jay

FOOD COLLECTION CAMPAIGN

Each Sunday we will highlight one specific food or household item that is especially needed by the needy in our neighborhood. By focusing on one item each week, together we can help keep our Food Pantry and Blessing Boxes stocked with food and supplies for those who are struggling. This can also be a great way to get our families and kids involved in helping to do what Christ teaches us by loving our neighbor in need. This weekend we are collecting PERSONAL CARE ITEMS (Soap, Toothpaste, Toothbrushes, Deodorant, etc.) Sunday. There are baskets at the church doors for the collection.

Here is a complete list of items that are especially helpful as you do your weekly or monthly shopping:

CANNED MEAT (TUNA, CHICKEN, HAM)
PASTA AND PASTA SAUCE
BREAKFAST CEREAL AND OATMEAL

SOCIAL CONCERNS MINISTRY

We are inviting anyone interested in helping our parish provide a monthly hot meal to the clients of St Benedict's Women & Family Day Shelter located on the corner of 9th and Hickman Ave.

This shelter continues to provide wonderful services for clients such as:

- A place of rest during the day
- Along with targeted case management; laundry and shower facilities; education, employment, and housing assistance; bible study, and an array of other programs

In order to have a hot meal, the clients must walk approximately a mile to the Pitino Shelter, thus we believe by sharing the blessing of food with these women and children we are recognizing that each person is important and loved by God.
